The Church Discipline Bill.
The motion for the second reading of Church Discipline Bill was rejected in House of Commons, on division, by 113 160. The amendment moved by the Vermont deputation to accept the bill, fore-shadowing the introduction of legislation in the event of the failure of Bishops, to speedily secure obedience, adopted.
In the course of the debate Sir Richard Webster, the Attorney-General, said the bill was unjust and unworkable, and was Sir William Harcourt said the attitude of the House had strikingly changed in the past few months. Both the Government and the amendment asserted that the Crown and the Parliament were supreme. The Archbishop of Lambeth was asked to grade the Privy Council, and something was done; it would now be possible to maintain the establishment.

Mr A. J. Balfour, leader of the Government, said that the Church, established or disestablished, would remain in a Lord High Cecil, M.P. for Greenwich, in the name of Lord Salisbury, said the members of the Government were neither ignorant nor unopposed. The bill passed nearly a year ago, and the Government were now to meet to consider the prosecution of 7,000 persons, and would result in the disruption of the Church. Parliament, in keeping the memory of God's vineyard, ought to reject the measure, and thus prevent an increase of bitterness and bigotry.

Most of the Irish members and 25 others voted with the minority.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, leader of the Liberal party, Mr. John Morley, and others, also voted with the majority.

The Russians at Hankow.

May 1.—Mr. St. John Brodric, Secretary for Foreign Affairs, announced in the House of Commons last night in response to a question that had been made, Russia had "proposed" with the property of British subjects in Hankow.

The Hankow difficulty arises out of longstanding disputes with the owners of property in Hankow, which used to be a free-trade port. The dispute is a title-bearing matter of the Russo-Japanese war, and, while the dispute is not yet settled, the Chinese Government has refused to permit the Chinese to take the property of British subjects in Hankow several times been given to quit, which, however, they have guarded. It is only fair to state that they have been offered compensation and have refused to accept it. The Chinese Government has refused to take up a treaty and a treaty notice to quit, which was followed by an absolute refusal on the part of the

The Colonial Club Dinner.—Sir Robert Herbert presided at the Colonial Club dinner last night. The party numbered 200, including Sir Salomons (Agent-General for the Colonies), Mr. J. C. Koser (Agent-General for the Colonies), Mr. E. H. Wint (Agent-General for Western Australia), Philip Fyfe (Agent-General for Tasmania), Lord Strathcona (High Commissioner, Canada), and the Earl of Aberdeen, Governor-General of the Colonies. The speech, in which Sir Salomons took the opportunity, in the course of his speech, intimated that the Imperial Government may reconsider its views with regard to the Pacific cable.

ROBINSON Piano Co.'s own manufacture;
best for this climate and hard wear. Guaranteed.—Price $350.

A young French lady went the other day to the Colonial Ministry in Paris asking him to give her brother some post in 'Le quin.' The Minister explained politely that 'Le quin' did not want the brother, but would gladly welcome the young lady herself. 'Go out as a music mistress, for instance,' she said, 'and in six months you will find the official—a much better match than you could expect in France.' The young lady is going.

FIFTY TIMES ITS PRICE.

This morning I felt as weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller and McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose did me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G. H. WILSON, Livestockman, Burgin, Iowa, Washington Co., Pa. This remedy is for sale by all Dealers. WATKINS & Co., General Agents.

The Tide Table given below has been compiled by the Nautical Almanac Office in London from the result of the analysis of observations taken by means of an automatic tide-recording machine in the Water Police Basin at Tam Shé Tsai during the years 1887-9.
